Työllistä taidolla (Employ with Competence) – a free service to support the growth of your business

- ▶ Entrepreneur, is there more work than you can handle?
- ▶ Do you think your business has potential to grow if only you could find the right person?
- ▶ Are you wondering whether you should recruit or lease employees or buy labour, for instance?
- ▶ What kind of contracts should be concluded when acquiring labour or employees?

If you are wondering about these questions, the Työllistä taidolla (Employ with Competence) service is your solution!

Free advisory service

The Työllistä taidolla (Employ with Competence) service provides individual coaching on the different ways to acquire labour.

You will learn how to use the services designed for recruitment purposes and for buying or leasing labour. Furthermore, you will develop your capabilities as an employer. Our consultants provide you with concrete advice personalised to your individual situation.

Who is it for

The service is intended for entrepreneurs with little experience of recruiting or acting as an employer. The primary target group consists of solo entrepreneurs and small businesses. The service is available throughout Finland.

If you are wondering whether or not your company is eligible for the service, please contact the TE Office using the email address below.

How to get involved

Työllistä taidolla (Employ with Competence)

Työllistä taidolla (Employ with Competence) is a nationwide project financed and managed by the Uusimaa TE Office and the ELY Centre for Uusimaa.

The aim of the service is to support businesses in delivering solid growth by providing free information and advice on being an employer and on the different ways to acquire labour as well as making it easier to find suitable candidates.

The service is provided by the TE Office but carried out by private service providers. The service is available in 15 different ELY areas.
