

TE-palvelut
tjänster | services

te-services.fi

National Telephone Service JOBLINE

TE- Services in English

General information on employment services and guidance in the use of the online services. The national Jobline will not make authoritative decisions on your matters.

Service Number Jobline +358 295 020 713

The service price is determined by the customer's own phone service agreement.

The service is available Mon–Fri 9–16.15

- When you need information on TE- services or advice on how to use the online services.
- When you would like advice or guidance on issues related to education, funding of studies as well as information on different professions.
- When you would like information on applying for unemployment benefits, the labour political requirements for receiving the benefits or reasons for the labour political statement.
- When you have questions regarding integration matters and questions regarding residence permits based on employment.

For example, you can ask about the following

- I have lost my job, what should I do?
- How can I finance my studies?
- How do I know if my qualification is eligible in Finland?
- Is it possible to receive unemployment benefits while running a business?
- Do I need a residence permit in order to work in Finland?

Don't forget the online services – available 24/7

www.te-services.fi

My job search

A direct channel where you can register as a jobseeker and notify of any changes in your job search (e.g. employment).

Job vacancies and Career Watch

Latest information on job vacancies across the country. Information on jobs you are interested in sent to your e-mail.

CV-net

A service where you can present yourself directly to employers.

My unemployment security information

You can follow up on your own unemployment security information and reply to requests for clarification.

The online services are available in Finnish and Swedish.